A Fair Question.

The three hundred members of Congress more or less,-the half dozen delegates from the various Territories, included would, we believe, swell the whole inimiber to a little upwards of three hundred-were off, on a ten day's furlough, without anybody's consent but their own, having adjourned on the 23d, to the 4th of January, on account of the holidays," as the Wush ington letter writers phrase it.

We should be very much obliged to some one"that knows the law, to go to," if he would take the trouble to inform us and our readers, whether the "honorable gentlemen," recently so pleasantly regaling them, selves, were, strictly speaking, spending their own time, in the ten days' furlough which they have thus complacently voted themarlyes; or whether, by the terms of the act of 1856, the people have got to pay exch and every one of these three Lundred Congressmen the handsome sum of Thirty-four Dollars a day for each and every one of the ten days' inrlough aforesaid-that sum being just now their regular wages when employed in the discharge of their public duties at Washington, under the provisions of the act above mentioned.

Knowing as we do, that the government is outrogeously in debt about these days, and there being no great certainty as to the adoption by the present Congress of any adequate or proper means of relief for that indebtedness, we cannot help feeling a degree of patriotic anxiety to learn whether the gentlemen who are so largely paid for their work, are also equally well paid for their play. If they are, we have one suggestion on the subject, which we shall make bold to throw out, right here-and that is, that we think it is high time somebody besides Congress should have something to say in regard to the compensation and furloughs to be hereafter enjoyed by the members of the two houses:

During the agitation of this question of increasing the pay of members, two years ago, we know it was proposed, by way of salvo to the for greater pay then suggested that a certain rate per diem should be deducted from the pay of members who might · be absent from their scats beyond a certain length of time, for any cause except illness, but we are rather of opinion that this proviso was rejected, and that the members of both houses do actually receive their 34 dollars a day, all round, for their boliday weeks and fortnights, and all other leisure time during the session, just the same as if they were basied with all fidelity in their public duties.

If this impression is erroneous, we are quite willing to be set right about it, by any one who "knows the law" of 1856.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED T. DEATH The Hocidaysburg Register brings us the particulars of a mos. heartrending cathe particulars of a most heartrending calamity which occurred at the village of Fosteria, Bhan County, Pal, a few days since. A small frame house, occupied by the man barned Bender, his wife and three small children, took fire and was burned to the ground, all the little ones perishing in the flames. Mr. Bender, who is a tanner, had left his home to pursue his cay's toil, and after his departure his wife went out to milk her cow, tocked the door children in antit her return, the cow-pen being some hundred yards a-way. During her absence the house cought fire by some means unknown, and before it was discovered the fluxes had made such progress that the rescue of the children was impossible. When found, the bones of the two elder tone of them aged about 6 years and the other about 3 years) were lying near the door, the young-est (a take of two months) was still in an half-consumed cradle, with one arm, and. one foot burned off, and otherwise mustriatail. So nearly were the bodies consumed that no coding were called for, and conjusedly they were relied in one winding sheet and in one box speedily horsed out of sight The parents are reft entirely destitute, as well of household goods as "household treasures," and the latte money they had husbanded a lost with the rest.

NEWSPAPER IMPROVEMENTS .-- The Tounton Daily Gazette, now in the twelfth year of its existence, has recently been colorged and improved. The copy before as is beautifully printed, on elegant paper, and the contents evince a determination on the part of its enterprising proprietor to spare no pains nor expense to make it a first class daily paper. The polities of the Gazette are Democratic, which should commend it to the leiends of the Administration hereabout. We are pleased to observe that Mr. Ide is giving his attention to the marine department of Taunton. Hitherto no reports have been received from there. A. M. Ide, Jr., Publisher. Terms $4.00 per annum.

The Full River Daily Beacon has been enlarged with the new year, which was made necessary by the press of advertising patronage. Mr. Tripp, its proprietor, is a hard working, industrious man, who has been connected with the press in Fall River for more than quarter of a century, and deserves success, and being physically of gigantic proportions, we have no doubt he will achieve it.

The Century, is the title of a new week ly paper published in New York by Thomas M'Elrath, the first two numbers of which have been received at this office. It is refreshing to turn from the flashy weekly publications with which the country is flooded, to one of this character, embodying as it does all that is substantial and instructive in literature, besides furnishing an ably compiled epitome of general news. The Century is a large quarto sheet, printed on good paper, and is furnished at the low price of $2.60 per year, or 5 cents per single copy.

Marine Items.

Schooner Girofle, of Addison, from New York for Salem, came in here Monday afternoon during the blow, and anchored off the south-east side of Rose Island, with both anchors out. During the night she parted one of her cables and dragged down to the south west side of Goat Island, where she brought up at her other snehor, with the loss of an anchor and 15 fathoms of chain. Mun were at work vesterday dragging for it.

The steamer State of Maine, which arrived at New York at 8 o'clock Monday night, left again at 11, in order to be ready for her regular trip from Fall River last evening, arriving here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. She reports steamer Vanderhilt ashere on Fisher's Island: went to her assistance and took off her passengers, carrying them into Stonington. No further particulars concerning her have been received.

P. S. Ca<sub>l</sub> t. Duckingham, of the sloor Willard, informs us that he passed within half a mile of the steamer at 1 o'clock, P M., yesterday. He reports her as nearly " high and dry" at low water, with one of her smoke pipes canted over. A large steamer was anchored near her with steam up, and several smacks were sailing about and along side, apparently engaged in transferring the freight from one boat to Cupt B. also reports a propeller sunk about half a mile north of the steamer, with smoke pipe and masts above water.

After tea I went to the most-head with my glues to see what it was, when I found it to be a sandi yaud boat with a sail set, and I thought I could see sentething that looked like a human being in it. Calling my first officer, I told him I thought there was a man sitting there, and it was so near night that I feared we should miss the beat, so I ordered him to lower his boat and go as quick sepossible, for it might be the means of tsaving life. The wind was very light at he time he lowered. At 7p. m., he returned and brought the boat, and also a man by the name of Though Huntly, a native of London, England, a late resident of Hall's Islaud, and formerly a resident at Lahmin, Sandwick I rande him as comfortable as I could at that time—took his boat and all the things on deck.
